The above GRP relates to cancellations for any reason, or no reason at all, as it has no pre-requisites to qualify for beyond opting for CFAR coverage. If however, your cancellation or trip interruption is for a specific reason, such as a medical issue or an unexpected emergency, then you may qualify for a 100% refund of all monies paid.

Note: This program cannot be extended to residents of New York. This is because Trip Mate doesn't offer Cancel for Any Reason (CFAR) coverage to New York (NY) residents. With the Standard Travel Protection plan included on all trips, New York residents are still eligible for a trip cancellation benefit if prevented from traveling due to a specific qualifying reason, such as a documented medical issue or an unexpected emergency.
